

There are frequent transgressions of Facebook's community standards and it is everyone's right and duty to report these issues.

Facebook's community Standards¹ include sections on:

- Violence and threats
- Self-harm
- Bullying and Harassment
- Hate Speech
- Graphic Content
- Nudity and Pornography
- Identity and Privacy
- Intellectual Property
- Phishing and Spam
- Security

with the terms and conditions² explaining user duties and responsibilities.

If you feel that any of the above have been transgressed then you should report the infringements to Facebook.

Report a violation of the Facebook Terms

Please use this form to report violations of the Facebook Terms. If you can't see the content you're trying to report, please ask a friend for help.

What issue are you trying to report?

- My account has been hacked
- Someone is pretending to be me
- Someone is using my email address for their Facebook account
- Someone is using my photos or my child's photos without my permission
- Something on Facebook violates my rights
- I found an underage child on Facebook
- Other abuse or harrassment

Send

There are several other links and pages from each option and you have to be patient.

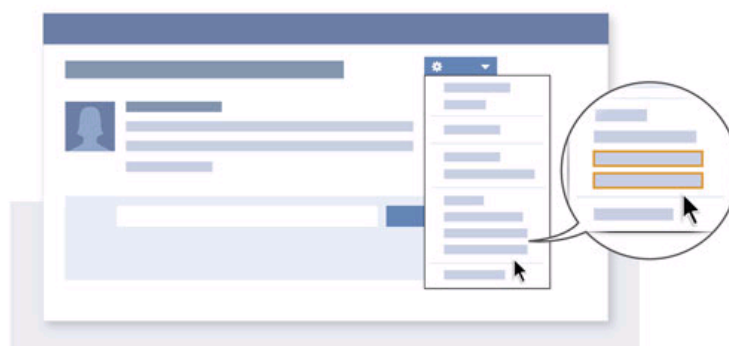

If you have the web address (url) of the offending site it makes the process easier.

If you have a Facebook Account

If you want just to report certain items then you can use the report button that appears near each item

Messages

1. Open the message you'd like to report
2. Click  Actions at the top-right corner of the message
3. Click Report Spam or Abuse

More information on this is given at: <https://www.facebook.com/help/reportlinks>

In both cases report(s) of the decisions are sent to your email address and if you have an account your support dashboard.
